Insurance

25. I understand that AusCycling through a National Insurance Scheme (NIS) has arranged some limited insurance coverage which may provide me with some protection for injury and loss that I may suffer during my participation in Cycling Activities. A summary of this cover can be found on the AusCycling website.

In relation to the limited insurance arranged by AusCycling through the NIS, I acknowledge, understand and accept as follows:

I understand that my membership application may be rejected if the information is not provided. I understand that if I do not wish to receive promotional material from AusCycling's sponsors and third parties that I must advise AusCycling via email or telephone or via the specific opt-out procedures provided in the relevant communication.

Bar to proceedings

28. I acknowledge and agree that membership of AusCycling gives rise to a contract between me and AusCycling and that these terms and conditions form part of that contract. I further acknowledge and agree that I will not commence any proceedings against AusCycling until I have exhausted all avenues of appeal or inquiry available to me under AusCycling's rules framework. AusCycling may plead this contract as a bar to proceedings now or in the future commenced by or on behalf of me or by any person claiming through me. I acknowledge that where I commence proceedings against AusCycling, I:

- a. will commence those proceedings in the courts of the jurisdiction in which any incident occurs;

- b. waive any right to object to the exercise of such jurisdiction;

- d. will pay the costs of any application made by AusCycling under paragraph 27(c) and will consent to any application for security of costs made at any time by AusCycling; and
- e. consent to paying AusCycling's legal defence costs of the proceedings (on a solicitor client basis) where AusCycling successfully defends the proceedings.

Governing Law

29. The governing law of this agreement is the law of Victoria ('Jurisdiction'). I irrevocably and unconditionally consent and submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of the jurisdiction in which any incident occurs and waive any right to object to the exercise of such jurisdiction.

Entire Agreement

30. This agreement (and the documents to which it refers) constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all other agreements, understandings, representations and negotiations in relation to Cycling Activities.

31. To the extent that any clause of this agreement is void or unenforceable it is severable and does not affect the remaining provisions of the agreement.

Cancellation of Membership & Refund Policy

32. I understand and accept that I can cancel my Membership with AusCycling at any time by providing notice in writing to AusCycling. I understand that, the clauses below outline the circumstances in which I can apply for a refund of the relevant fee relating to that cancelled membership:

- a. all times, subject to the Australian Consumer Law and nothing in the policy seeks to exclude a member's right to a refund (in part or in full) under the Australian Consumer Law. For the avoidance of doubt, where the policy states that a refund is not permitted in certain circumstances, it shall not apply to circumstances where a refund is permitted under the Australian Consumer Law, which will always be granted.
- b. AusCycling will consider a request for a refund at any time after purchase of the membership, provided the refund request is in writing (except as otherwise stated in this policy).
- c. Any refund request received whereby the member has made or intends to make a claim on AusCycling's insurance will not be considered for a refund.
- d. A refund request made within seven (7) days of a member receiving a receipt for the purchase of a membership, including via auto renewal, will receive a full refund.
- e. A refund request made after the expiration of the seven (7) day period outlined in 32.d will incur an Administration Fee of $10 except where a refund is granted due to AusCycling's error.
- f. After the expiration of the seven (7) day period, no refunds will be provided except in limited exceptional circumstances (as determined by AusCycling at its complete discretion). For the avoidance of any doubt, a refund of membership fees will not be permitted or considered exceptional circumstances, in the following (non-exhaustive) scenarios:
 - i. a pandemic declared by the World Health Organisation
 - ii. natural disaster
 - iii. change of mind
 - iv. the event of injury or illness
 - v. a change in personal circumstances which prevents a member from enjoying the full benefits of membership
- g. Refunds of a membership fee will be provided at AusCycling's sole and absolute discretion. Each particular circumstance is unique and the exercise of discretion by AusCycling in one instance, does not create the obligation to exercise that same discretion in another.

- h. If AusCycling exercises its discretion to refund a membership fee, the refund of money owed (less any cancellation fee) will be arranged with the member.
- i. For automatically renewed memberships (except for Race Membership Payment Plans during the minimum term), if the membership automatically renews at the end of its term and for any reason the member determines they do not wish to renew the membership, the member may cancel this membership any time within seven (7) days after the membership has automatically renewed, and provided the request is in writing, make a request for a refund of any membership fees paid.
- j. There is no entitlement to a refund should the request for a refund be made after the applicable period of the membership expires.
- k. Refunds of a membership fee in this context only applies to the AusCycling fee and does not apply to the Club fee or any other fee payable by the member in relation to their participation in a cycling discipline.

Club Transfers

34. For annual memberships or Race Membership Payment Plans, a primary club transfer can be requested in writing to AusCycling during the term.
35. I accept full responsibility to notify my current club of my wish to transfer and making good any outstanding payments I have before submitting the request to transfer/transferring.
36. I understand that my former primary club can request a suspension of my membership if the transfer request has been completed and it is found that I have outstanding payments.
37. All club transfer requests made during your membership term will incur a $10 administration fee.
38. I understand that club fees cannot be pro-rated and to complete the transfer process, I must pay the club fee and administration fee in full.
39. For monthly recreation memberships and expiring annual membership, a club transfer can be done manually at the expiration of your monthly/annual membership.
40. For monthly recreation or expiring annual memberships, clauses 35 & 36 still apply.

Warning under the Australian Consumer Law and Fair Trading Act 2012:

Under the Australian Consumer Law (Victoria), several statutory guarantees apply to the supply of certain goods and services. These guarantees mean that the suppliers named on this form, AusCycling, are required to ensure that the recreational services supplied to you:

- a. are rendered with due care and skill; and
- b. are reasonably fit for any purpose which you either expressly or by implication, make known to the supplier; and
- c. might reasonably be expected to achieve any result you have made known to the supplier. Under section 22 of the Australian Consumer Law and Fair Trading Act 2012 (Vic), the supplier is entitled to ask you to agree that these conditions do not apply to you. If you sign this form, you will be agreeing that your rights to sue the supplier under the Australian Consumer Law and Fair Trading Act 2012 if you are killed or injured because the services were not in accordance with these guarantees, are excluded, restricted or modified in the way set out in this form.

Note: The change to your rights, as set out in this form, does not apply if your death or injury is due to gross negligence on the supplier's part. "Gross negligence" in relation to an act or omission, means doing the act or omitting to do an act with reckless disregard, with or without consciousness, for the consequences of the act or omission. See regulation 5 of the Australian Consumer Law and Fair Trading Regulations 2012 (Vic) and section 22(3)(b) of the Australian Consumer Law and Fair Trading Act 2012 (Vic). Exclusion of rights under the Australian Consumer Law (Victoria): By signing this form, you agree that the liability of AusCycling for any death or personal injury (as defined in the Australian Consumer Law and Fair Trading Act 2012) that may be suffered by you (or a person from whom or on whose behalf you are acquiring the services) resulting from the supply of recreational services is excluded.

For recreational services to which the Australian Consumer Law (Australian Capital Territory), Australian Consumer Law (Queensland) or Australian Consumer Law (Tasmania) applies:

By signing this membership application form and declaration, I acknowledge that where I am a consumer of recreational services, as defined by any relevant law, certain terms and rights usually implied into a contract for the supply of goods or services may be excluded. I acknowledge that these implied terms and rights and any liability of AusCycling flowing from them, are expressly excluded to the extent possible by law, by this membership application form and declaration. To the extent of any liability arising, the liability of AusCycling will, at the discretion of AusCycling, be limited in the case of goods, to the replacement, repair or payment of the cost of replacing the goods and in the case of services, the resupply of the services or payment of the cost of having the services supplied again. For the avoidance of doubt, this exclusion does not exclude liability for recklessness as defined by any relevant law.

For recreational services or activities provided in South Australia:

For recreational services to which the Australian Consumer Law (South Australia) applies: Your rights: Under sections 60 and 61 of the Australian Consumer Law (SA), if a person in trade or commerce supplies you with services including recreational services), there is:

- c. a statutory guarantee that those services, and any product resulting from those services, will be of such a nature, and quality, state or condition, that they might reasonably be expected to achieve the result that the consumer wishes to achieve (as long as that wish is made known to the supplier or a person with whom negotiations have been conducted in relation to the acquisition of the services). Excluding, restricting or modifying your rights: Under section 42 of the Fair Trading Act 1987(SA), the supplier of recreational services is entitled to ask you to agree to exclude, restrict or modify his or her liability for any personal injury suffered by you or another person for whom or on whose behalf you are acquiring the services (a third party consumer). If you sign this form, you will be agreeing to exclude, restrict or modify the supplier's liability with the result that compensation may not be payable if you or the third-party consumer suffer personal injury.

Important:

You do not have to agree to exclude, restrict or modify your rights by signing this form. The supplier may refuse to provide you with the services if you do not agree to exclude, restrict or modify your rights by signing this form. Even if you sign this form, you may still have further legal rights against the supplier. A child under the age of 18 cannot legally agree to exclude, restrict or modify his or her rights. A parent or guardian of a child who acquires recreational services for the child cannot legally agree to exclude, restrict or modify the child's rights.

By signing this document, I acknowledge that I have been made aware of the general effect of this exclusion, restriction or modification, have had a reasonable opportunity to consider whether or not to enter into this contract on that basis and have decided to enter into the contract.
