

Independent Selectors – Expressions of Interest High Performance Program

OVERVIEW

As part of AusCycling's objectives to select athletes and continue to deliver medal winning performances internationally in Olympic and Paralympic cycling events, we are seeking passionate and experienced individuals from within the cycling community to be part of the formal selection process for Elite, U23 and U19 level National Teams.

As a member of a National Selection Panel, and in accordance with AusCycling's Selection Policy, the Discipline Specific Independent National Selector will be one of five (5) National Selectors that include the Performance Director and National Coach, ensuring the best athletes are selected in a transparent manner.

AusCycling is now accepting Expressions of Interest for a number of Discipline Specific Independent National Selector's to be appointed to our 2021 National Selection Panels (1 independent selector per panel):

Esport (2021 UCI World Championship Selection Panel)

Junior Road (2021 UCI World Championship Selection Panel)

MTB DH (2021 UCI World Championship Selection Panel)

MTB XCO (2021 UCI World Championship Selection Panel; and Tokyo Olympics Nomination Panel)

Track (2021 UCI World Championship Selection Panel; and Tokyo Olympics Nomination Panel)

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- Have actively participated in the last 5-years at an elite national or international level as an athlete, coach, manager or support staff member in your nominated discipline
- Have the ability to analyse and question objectively, individual athlete or team performance data against selection criteria and performance standards
- Be above any perceived or actual conflict of interest or bias

THE ROLE

The available Discipline Specific Independent National Selector roles must be filled with persons meeting the following criteria:

- Successful Independent Selectors will have knowledge of cycling at an international competition level and have an ability to understand and apply policies and procedures.
